It used to be said that there was no surer way of resurrecting a stallion's career than to give him a one-way ticket to Japan.

Well, in Duke Of Marmalade's case, it was a ticket to South Africa, to stand at Drakenstein Stud. His sale was announced in May 2014, before his first three-year-olds had had much chance to shine over middle distances.

However, the original high hopes held of this top-notch middle-distance horse are being fulfilled in 2015. When Nutan stormed home five lengths clear in the Deutsches Derby, he credited his sire with his third 2015 'Classic' success, following Sound Of Freedom's win in the Gr3 Premio Regina Elena and Star Of Seville's in the Prix de Diane. For good measure, his son Big Orange took the Gr2 Princess of Wales's Stakes.

Now a winner of two of his four starts, Nutan is the second Gr1 winner for his dam, the Group-placed Peintre Celebre mare Neele. His predecessor, the Grosser Preis von Berlin winner Nymphaea, was sired by another of Danehill's best middle-distance sons, namely Dylan Thomas.

Nutan's second dam Night Teeny was a winning half-sister to Night Petticoat, a Preis der Diana winner who added to her Classic achievements by becoming the dam of the Deutsches Derby winner Next Desert and Preis der Diana winner Next Gina.

Night Teeny herself produced the Oaks d'Italia winner Night Of Magic, who is a sister to Neele. Night Of Magic, in turn, is now the dam of Nightflower, the Dylan Thomas filly who annexed this year's Gr2 Diana-Trial.

Nutan and Nymphaea come from the same German female line as the King George winner Novellist. Novellist's fifth dam, the top German juvenile filly Night Music, was a sister to Nutan's fourth dam Nightlife. Nightlife was also a half-sister to Novelle, winner of the Preis der Diana in 1983.

As a footnote, Nutan subsequently started favourite for the Grosser Preis von Berlin, in which he was third.

For the third time in nine years, the Irish National Stud's Invincible Spirit was responsible for the winner of the Prix Jean Prat. The first two legs of the treble were provided by Lawman in 2007 and Charm Spirit in 2014, and in 2015 it was the turn of Territories. This colt had earlier followed in the footsteps of another of Invincible Spirit's best sons, Kingman, by finishing second in the 2,000 Guineas.

Territories is a reminder that some of Green Desert's stallion sons have achieved extremely good statistics with Machiavellian's broodmare daughters. For example, Oasis Dream has the Gr1 winners Goldream and Naaqos among his 18 foals and Invincible Spirit has a similarly impressive record. From 36 foals Invincible Spirit has had 24 winners, with as many as six enjoying black-type success. This combination owes its success largely to speed – often precocious speed – notably producing Hooray (Gr1 Cheveley Park Stakes), Conquest (Gr2 Gimcrack Stakes) and Lockwood (a speedy dual Gr3 winner). Although he has a May 7 birthday, Territories was also very useful at two, as he showed when beaten less than a length, despite being hampered, by the demoted Gleneagles in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere. Machiavellian also sired the second dam of Charm Spirit, the 2014 Jean Prat winner who went on to take the Prix du Moulin and Queen Elizabeth II Stakes.

Invincible Spirit's success with grand-daughters of Mr Prospector isn't limited to Machiavellian, as Lawman, who won the Prix du Jockey-Club prior to the Jean Prat, is out of a mare by Gulch.

Territories pedigree is a reminder that Sheikh Mohammed's involvement in British racing and breeding now extends to several decades. Not only did the sheikh breed Territories under the Darley banner but also the colt's first three dams, Taranto, Magna Graecia and Grecian Slipper. All three of these mares were above average, with Taranto and Magna Graecia respectively achieving Timeform ratings of 111 and 112. Magna Graecia was a Gr3 winner over nearly two miles, so it is understandable that Taranto stayed quite well for a daughter of Machiavellian.

Territories's fourth dam is the Irish Oaks winner Helen Street, who visited Taranto's sire Machiavellian to produce the highly successful Street Cry and the useful Helsinki, who supplied Darley with another top stallion in Shamardal.

The turnaround in Dubawi's fortunes over the last few years has been nothing short of sensational – so much so that it is easy to forget that breeders' interest in him stalled significantly in his third and fourth years. In fact it stalled so much in his third year (when he stood at Kildangan) that he was left with a crop of 76 foals (compared to 117 in his first crop and 115 in his second). Even dropping his fee to £15,000 in 2009 didn't help, with Dubawi's fourth crop numbering only 62 foals.

Fortunately those large initial crops did so eye-catchingly well that by 2011 Dubawi's fee stood at £55,000. Now, four years later, the three-year-olds resulting from those 2011 coverings are busily proving that Dubawi is worth every penny of the £125,000 charged for his services in 2015. Seven of the 114 members of this 2012 crop have so far become Group winners, with another four winning at Listed level. Among them are winners of two of France's top prizes. Firstly the Prix du Jockey-Club was won by New Bay and now the Grand Prix de Paris has seen the Niarchos family's Erupt improve his record to four wins from four starts.

The choice of Dubawi as the 2011 mate for Erupt's dam, Caerleon's daughter Mare Nostrum, no doubt owed a lot to the 2010 efforts of Anna Salai, another of Dubawi's foals out of a Caerleon mare. Anna Salai challenged for the Irish 1,000 Guineas, having won the Gr3 Prix de la Grotte, and she looked to be on her way to victory until Bethrah caught her on the line.

The dams of Anna Salai and Erupt were both Gr3 winners in France, and Mare Nostrum also did well at Gr1 level, failing by only a head to win the Prix Saint-Alary before finishing third in the Prix Vermeille. Mare Nostrum clearly stayed quite well and she has succeeded in passing on her stamina to Erupt. Her best previous effort as a broodmare was the tough ten-furlong filly Marie de Medici, now the dam of this year's UAE 1,000 Guineas and Oaks winner Local Time.

Mare Nostrum was one of several talented daughters of Salvora, a minor French winner by the top American middle-distance horse Spectacular Bid. Best of the others was Aube Indienne, a Bluebird filly who was transformed from Listed winner in France to Gr1 winner in the USA, where she took the Yellow Ribbon Stakes over a mile and a quarter.

This is an outstanding female line, as Erupt's fourth dam is the champion American filly Fanfreluche, a sister to that good stallion Night Shift. Erupt's third dam Grand Luxe maintained the family's reputation for producing talented stallions, thanks to her Australian grandson Flying Spur and great-grandson Encosta de Lago.

There were some very valuable fillies among the nine contenders in the Irish Oaks, but the result provided encouragement for any owner or breeder forced to operate on a restricted budget. Victory went to Covert Love, who was unsold for €26,000 as a yearling after being conceived at a fee of €15,000. And her nearest pursuer was Jack Naylor, who was in utero when her dam Fashionable was sold by Juddmonte for only 10,000gns.

The progressive Covert Love is by Azamour, who died at 13 following an accident midway through the 2014 breeding season. Although Azamour had the distinction of being a major Gr1 winner over eight, ten and 12 furlongs, this admirable son of Night Shift was never hugely fashionable as a stallion and his fee in his final season was only €8,000, compared to the €25,000 he started out at.

leading role. Dolniya (Dubai Sheema Classic), Valyra (Prix de Diane), Eleanora Druse, Shankardeh and No Explaining rank among the best of Covert Love's predecessors.

Covert Love's broodmare sire Hawk Wing was something of a 'Marmite' character. Those who liked him could point out that he won three of his four juvenile starts; that he added the 2002 Eclipse at three after finishing second in the 2,000 Guineas and Derby; and that he was officially rated the best horse seen anywhere in 2003, on the strength of his 11-length win in the Lockinge Stakes.

Those who felt that Hawk Wing never quite fulfilled all the hype were able to point to his stallion career in their belief that he was overrated. He failed to sire anything greatly out of the ordinary and it wasn't long before he was heading for South Korea.

Covert Love's dam Wing Stealth failed to win in nine starts, but was conceived at a fee of €25,000, which reflects the quality of her outstanding female line. Covert Love's fifth dam is Stolen Hour, whose legacy was based largely on her broodmare daughters Best In Show and Stolen Date. The Best In Show branch is the better known of the two, thanks to such as El Gran Senor, Aldebaran, Xaar, Spinning World, Try My Best, Dromediver, Redoute's Choice, Rags To Riches and Close Hatches.

Stolen Date was best known as the dam of the successful Irish stallion Taufan (grandsire of Canford Cliffs), but she also produced the talented sisters Stoshka, a Listed winner over a mile and a half, and Bubinka, winner of the Gr3 Premio Buontalenta over a mile. Bubinka ranks as the second dam of Irish Derby winner Grey Swallow and now she is the third dam of Covert Love and of the Hong Kong Horse of the Year Designs On Rome.

When Postponed pushed his nose ahead of Eagle Top's to land the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes, he became no less than the ninth Gr1 winner of the year for the remarkable Dubawi. Two of those Gr1 winners were the Australian fillies Srikandi and Shamal Wind, but the northern hemisphere septet is an all-male collection, featuring Hunter's Light, Prince Bishop, Night Of Thunder, Al Kazeem, New Bay, Erupt and now Postponed.

Of these seven, five recorded their Gr1 success from a mile and a quarter to a mile and a half. Postponed is one of them, even though his pedigree doesn't shout top-class mile-and-a-half ability. Both his sire Dubawi and broodmare sire Dubai Destination were top winners over seven furlongs at two before becoming Gr1 winners over a mile. Don't forget, though, that both of these stallions were far from disgraced when they made their solitary venture over middle distances, with Dubawi's effort being his third in the Derby.

Dubai Destination's progeny have an average winning distance of 9.9 furlongs, so perhaps it isn't so surprising that his broodmare daughters have produced the winners of both of 2015's richest mile-and-a-half races in Britain, with Golden Horn taking the Derby and Postponed the King George. Postponed is inbred 4 x 4 to Mr Prospector, something he shares with Prix du Jockey-Club winner New Bay.

Postponed's dam Ever Rigg won a 12-furlong maiden in the April of her three-year-old season, so she clearly had no stamina issues, even though her dam Bianca Nera was a fast daughter of the seven-furlong specialist Salse. After a debut victory over five furlongs, Bianca Nera progressed to win the Gr2 Lowther Stakes over six and the Gr1 Moyglare Stud Stakes over seven. Bianca Nera's half-sister, the very useful two-year-old Hotelgenie Dot Com, produced the dual Gr1 winner Simply Perfect (Fillies' Mile and Falmouth Stakes).

Their dam, Birch Creek, failed to win in six starts, even though she was beaten little more than a length in the Gr3 Premio Royal Mares over a mile.

Postponed's fourth dam, the speedy two-year-old Deed, also produced a Gr3-winning sprinter in Great Deeds, but her fifth dam Aurorabella was a sister to the Goodwood Cup winner Double Bore. Aurorabella's half-sister Life Sentence was the dam of the 2,000 Guineas winner Only For Life.

Stallions descending from the Allegretta female line have enjoyed extensive success at Gr1 level, with Galileo, King's Best, Black Sam Bellamy, Sea The Stars and Anabaa Blue all contributing at least one winner at the top level. Now Allegretta's grandson Tertullian can be added to the European list, following the success of his son Guiliani in a closely-fought Grosse Dallmayr-Preis (to be fair to Tertullian, another of his German sons, Mawingo, had already hit the Gr1 target, but in the Doomben Cup in Australia).

Tertullian was one of the speedier members of his family, no doubt thanks to being a son of Miswaki (who also sired Allegretta's remarkable daughter Urban Sea). Although Tertullian never won above Gr3 level, he did well at around seven furlongs, winning a total of five Group races in Germany, Italy and France. He has sired a couple of winners of the German 2,000 Guineas and Guiliani is also effective at a mile, though he is clearly suited by a mile and a quarter.

There is plenty of stamina on Guiliani's dam's side, as his dam Guadalupe won the Oaks d'Italia and was second in the Yorkshire Oaks. Her stakes-winning daughter Guantana also has a smart son in Guardini, a Group winner over a mile and a half in France and Germany. Guadalupe's brother Getaway originally made his name as a stayer, notably winning the Gr2 Prix Kergorlay, but he later shone at around a mile and a half, once finishing a good fourth in the Arc.

Guiliani's second dam Guernica never raced but, at 140,000gns, she was easily the highest-priced Unfuwain yearling of 1995. Guernica was the first foal of Greenvera, whose third foal, Royal Rebel, won the Gold Cup at Royal Ascot in 2001 and 2002. Guiliani's fourth dam, Greenway, was one of the fastest French juveniles of 1980, even though her dam Gracious was a half-sister to Gold River, the remarkably versatile Riverman filly whose wins included the Prix Royal-Oak, Prix du Cadran and the Arc. Gold River's success led to Greenway also being sent to Riverman, the result being the twice-raced Greenvera. Greenway also produced the very useful sprinter Way West, but her half-sister Gracious Lassie did better, producing the Gr1-winning juveniles Ocy Czarnie and Glaieuil. Greenway also ranks as the third dam of that admirable international filly Alexander Goldrun.

When the two-year-old Amazing Maria led virtually throughout to record an easy victory in the Gr3 Prestige Stakes, she looked poised to become the first Gr1 winner for her young sire Mastercraftsman.

Unfortunately it was more than nine months before she was able to race again, by which time Mastercraftsman had already hit the Gr1 target with Kingston Hill and The Grey Gatsby.

Amazing Maria proved very disappointing as a three-year-old but a change of trainers has helped revive her fortunes, to the extent that she has achieved consecutive successes in the Gr2 Duke of Cambridge Stakes, Gr1 Falmouth Stakes and Gr1 Prix Rothschild.

Although Amazing Maria tackled the Oaks, a mile is proving her ideal distance. This is no surprise as Mastercraftsman won the Irish 2,000 Guineas and St James's Palace

European Group 1s

Stakes (before proving effective over an extra quarter mile) and the filly's broodmare sire is Tale Of The Cat, who gained his best win over seven furlongs.

Tale Of The Cat is capable of siring very imposing sales yearlings, with Amazing Maria's dam Messias de Silva being a good example. Although sired at a fee of $40,000, Messias da Silva made $250,000 at Saratoga as a yearling. Her price then soared to $700,000 when she was bought by Sir Robert Ogden at Fasig-Tipton Florida the following March.

The confidence in her proved misplaced, as she earned less than £5,000, her only win coming over six furlongs on Lingfield's all-weather track. Happily, Sir Robert is now reaping the rewards via Amazing Maria and he has a yearling sister to his star filly, plus a weanling brother. He also has a two-year-old colt, Constantino, by Mastercraftsman's sire Danehill Dancer.

Messias da Silva probably owed her high price as a two-year-old more to her physique and workouts than to a stunning pedigree. Her dam Indy Power had failed to make the first three in any of her four starts and neither of Indy Power's stakes-winning half-brothers had made their mark in Graded stakes.

However, Amazing Maria's third dam, the dirt sprinter Clever Power, was a Gr3 winner and the next dam, Clever Miss, had a Gr2-winning daughter and Gr3-winning son to her credit.

Clever Miss was also a half-sister to the very successful sprinter Clever Trick, who found fame as the sire of champion sprinter Phone Trick.

The contenders for the Preis der Diana included several sired by stallions who are now plying their trade in Ireland's National Hunt sector. Among them were the fillies who finished first and second - Doyen's daughter Turfdonna and Dylan Thomas's daughter Nightflower.

As a 16.2-hands son of Sadler's Wells, Doyen had obvious appeal to National Hunt breeders, but it mustn't be forgotten that he was a very good performer - good enough to win the King George - and a very well-bred one too, being a brother to the Oaks winner Moonshell. His background was good enough for him to start his stallion career in 2006 at a fee of £10,000 at Dalham Hall, but by 2009 he had been transferred to Gestut Auenquelle, where Turfdonna was bred. The next move was to Sunnyhill Stud in 2012.

Turfdonna is Doyen's first Gr1 winner on the Flat. A May foal, she was running for only the fourth time when she became a Classic winner. She comes from a successful German family, her dam Turfaue being a sister to Turfroze. This smart daughter of the champion German stallion Big Shuffle won the Premio Lydia Tesio and was also runner-up in a couple of Gr2 races in France.

Turfdonna's second dam Turfquelle is a half-sister to three Group winners in Germany, including Tryphosa (German 1,000 Guineas) and Turfkönig (Gr1 Grosser Mercedes Benz Preis).

Galileo or Dubawi: impossible to call

Monsun is still on top but his lead is only fractional, with Galileo and Dubawi making relentless progress. It seems a certainty one of that pair will triumph but it is impossible to predict which. Galileo added six stakes horses and six stakes winners to his tally, while Dubawi's respective figures were five and three.

Dubawi had the edge in quality since both Erupt (Grand Prix de Paris) and Postponed (King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes) were on the mark at the highest level.

Sea The Stars and Shamardal both increased their percentage noticeably and jump sire Doyen has made an intriguing appearance thanks to Turfdonna, winner of the Preis der Diana, and easy German Group 2 scorer Wild Chief.

Dark Angel has shot up the table, assisted by Group 2 victories for Birchwood (Superlative Stakes) and Gutaifan (Prix Robert Papin), and Listed wins by Boomshackerlacker and Promised Money.
